MEDICAL FACILITY

Attending to the Medical Needs of Workers

Red Sea Housing Services understands the need for taking care of the medical requirements in these remote areas where time is of essence. For this reason our rapidly deployed modular buildings are highly suited for use as clinics, hospital wards, dispensaries, laboratories and consulting rooms.

From hospitals and medical centres that require treatment space to clinics, our comprehensive prefabricated building solutions let you take care of the needs of your employees with appropriate care. Buildings can be constructed as permanent structures or can be supplied as mobile, relocatable units.
